ABOUT ME

Enthusiastic and highly motivated individual transitioning from a successful 15-year career as a chef into the IT field. While I am new to the industry, I am eager to learn and passionate about developing my skills in front-end web development. Proficient in Python, JavaScript, TypeScript, Node.js, Next.js, and more, I am committed to building clean, user-focused web solutions and growing as a developer through continuous learning and hands-on experience

EXPERIENCE

FREELANCE DEVELOPER   2024 - Present

Freelance developer with experience building three fully functional websites for an electrician company, a DJ company, and a hairdresser, utilizing Next.js to deliver modern, responsive, and high-performance solutions.

EXICUTIVE HEAD CHEF   2023- Present
Cassidy's Hotel

Led high-performing teams to deliver exceptional culinary services by implementing efficient systems, ensuring quality control, and applying problem-solving, time management, budgeting, and relationship-building skills to optimize kitchen operations.

COMMIS CHEF - HEAD CHEF 2009 - 2023
Ireland and Moldova

Over 15 years of experience leading top-tier restaurants and hotels, with proven expertise in Michelin-starred dining and managing large-scale commercial kitchens with teams of over 50 staff.
